

prakash Sisodia, prantiya pracharak, told TOI. At the concluding session of the three-day RSS meet in Gwalior, Bhaiyyaji Joshi said, "We believe that those in power are not opposed to Ram Mandir. We do not doubt their commitment." Replying to a question, he said RSS's stand on Ram Temple is clear. "The temple should be built at the place where it has been decided upon. The movement on this issue will continue till the temple is constructed."

Computer Baba Namdev Das to head MP trust

Self-styled godman Namdev Das Tyagi aka Computer Baba has been appointed as the chairman of 'Ma Narmada, Ma Kshipra and Ma Mandakini River Trust' by the Madhya Pradesh government.

"The government has appointed Computer Baba, a resident of Gommat Giri Ashram, Indore, as chairman of the 'Ma Narmada, Ma Kshipra and Ma Mandakini Nadi Nyas (River Trust)' till further orders. The appointment will be effective with immediate effect," read an order issued by the spiritual department of the Congress-led Kamal Nath government on Saturday. TNN commission had been lying defunct. By spending over ₹3,000 crore for Kumbh, Yogi attempted to showcase good governance and promised to fetch ₹4.28 lakh crore investment through MoUs.

Confident of his performance, the CM has been boasting about sending 75 MPs to Lok Sabha, two more than last elections, including Amethi and Azamgarh. There were muted voices for a change in leadership in UP but these talks were shelved till the outcome of poll results in May.

arks Bengal ripples rompted Trinamool to convene an hour-long meeting Sunday morning. MP Dola went to Dutta's home early this morning. Urban development minister Fir-Hakim presided over the councillors' meeting later. Sources said CM Mamata Banerjee also spoke to Dutta before he left for the meeting.

Dutta clarified to report that Roy had called him. He wanted to come over to meet me and my wife Indira. At home he asked my wife to prepare luchi-aloor dom. We watched the India-Australia third ODI," said Dutta. He said they did not discuss politics. "I know him for a long time and could not say no to him when he wanted to meet my family. It was out of a good gesture," he insisted. But Hakim said, "Our relatives and friends are within the party. India and Pakistan's army cannot just meet as goodwill gesture. That would break morale of the armed forces," Hakim said.

Roy, however, kept the speculation alive. He claimed he had a word with Dutta.

Adhir reacted strongly to suggestions that he met Roy in New Delhi. He claimed that these speculations are being raised by the TMC leaders.
